

RAN Writers Association Certificate of Recognition

The RAN Writers Association Certificate of Recognition pays tribute to individuals and groups who have made a valuable contribution to the Writers Association.

Lewis Horsfield

Citation: In recognition of the services performed whilst serving as President of the Association. For the last several years Lew has been President of the Association and has promoted the Association for both retired and serving members of the Writers branch. He has spent countless hours maintaining and updating the database which contains over 2,500 names.

Date received: 12th March 2011

Geoffrey Hardwick

Citation: In recognition of the services performed whilst serving as Secretary of the Association. For the last several years Geoff has been Secretary of the Association and has promoted the Association for both retired and serving members of the Writers branch. He has spent countless hours maintaining and updating the web site.

Date received: 12th March 2011

David Ronald Rickard

Citation: In recognition of David's invaluable contribution to the association in the production of the book about our branch – The Pen is Mightier, and the support he played in the organisation of the Adelaide Reunion.

Date Received: 29/03/2008

National Mailing & Marketing Pty Ltd of Canberra

Citation: In recognition of their lasting contribution to the Royal Australian Navy Writers Association for providing a mail processing service for 'The Scribbler'

RAN Writers Association Certificate of Recognition

Date Received: 30th October 2006

Graeme Campbell

Citation: In recognition of Graeme's contribution in providing support for the production of the 'Scribbler' for the Association.

Date Received: 29/09/2005

Kevin Simpson

Citation: In recognition of Kevin's contribution in providing financial guarantee for RAN Writers Association Reunion - Adelaide 2005.

Date Received: 29/09/2005

