Navy News Volume 49, No. 16 , September 07, 2006

Maritime Commander Australia RADM David Thomas has acknowledged the efforts of the RAN personnel who worked hard to ensure the first anniversary of the Sea King accident was a fitting tribute to the nine ADF heroes who gave their lives in the line of duty.

RADM David Thomas recently commended LCDR Angus Mitchell, LEUT Kathryn McCabe and CPO Writer Morris Jeppesen for their role in Op Peringatan, which involved ferrying 28 of the deceased's next of kin and some 50 ADF personnel to the crash site at Tuindrau village.

Op Peringatan, which is Indonesian for "remembrance", was the dedication and memorial service held on the Indonesian island of Nias on April 2, 2006 to mark the first anniversary of the fatal crash of Sea King Shark 02 during the Op Sumatra II relief effort.

LCDR Mitchell was commended for his exceptional performance in the planning, coordination and execution of Operation Peringatan. LCDR Kathryn McCabe was acknowledged for her drive, dedication to duty and professionalism while supporting the recovery of Shark 02 after its accident on Nias Island in April 2005.

Jones, Chris

Ex CPOWTR R58771. Joined the navy in March 1962. Served at Cerberus from 1962 to 1963, joined Lonsdale in 1963, then HMAS Yarra in 1964 (under Commander Loxton), and back to Lonsdale in 1965. Posted to HMS Mull of Kintyre in Singapore (on loan to RN for the Borneo Confrontation and RAN Support crew to our sweepers based up there) in 1965, then back to Cerberus and Lonsdale in 1966 and Cerberus once more in 1967. Served in HMAS Sydney in 1970 to 1971 (under Nobby Clarke), then paid off in 1971. Joined Mayne

Nickless in their computer business and spent 17.5 years with them, becoming GM of their Australian and UK Operations. Spent a few years as MD of a computer business in London and returned to Perth in 1991, where he joined a WA based national operation as CEO. Chris is married with three sons.

Jones, Dale (Nee Williams)

Joined the Navy in 1961 and on completion of Writers course, I became the Supply School's writer for 12 months. For the next 12 months, I worked in the Administration Block for the First Lieutenant. I finally got a posting to Navy Office, then, in 1964, was discharged on Marriage. (Things certainly have changed now in this regard.) I married a sailor and for the next 16 years, was a navy wife. (A wonderful life). My husband paid off as a Warrant Officer (Medic) in 1980. I belong to the ex WRANS Association, the Peninsular ex Service Women's and the Naval Association. I worked for eight years for a fashion jewellery store and retired in 1997, when my husband retired from his job.

Jones, Frederick Stanley

Jongewaard, Helga (nee Hundertmark)

Ex WRWTR W107867. I joined the WRANS from Adelaide on 2/3/1970 as a Recruit WRWTR. I had wanted to join the Navy since I was 11 years old, when my parents gave me a 'Girl's Annual' for Christmas, containing an article 'Women in the Navy', with wonderful descriptions of 'living in condominiums by the sea', traveling and meeting people from all over. I can't say I wasn't initially a little shocked at the real deal, but I wouldn't have changed it for the world and I'd do it all over again.

After six weeks basic training at HMAS Cerberus and the Writer's Course with POWTR Gordon Coucil, I was sent to work in the Pay Office. It was a job I absolutely loved, having my own pay section of just over 300 male recruits and their instructors, working alongside Ted Ozols, George Edgel and Mick Scully. Near the end of April 1971, I was drafted to Harman, working at Navy Office under CMDR Snow, with POWRWTR Elaine Retallick. It was there my career in the WRANS ended, on 28/1/1972. I married a Harman sailor during the Christmas holiday break and was discharged on my return. As at 2007, it has been nearly thirty six years since I left the RAN, and I'm still happily married to that same sailor (now Detective Sergeant for SA Police) with two children and three grandchildren. I continued working in office situations for the next few years, but wanted a job that would give me more time with my children during school holidays. In 1980 I started working in the School Photography industry as a Kindergarten photographer and by 1986, I had started my own School photography business, Advanced Photographers, where I am to this day.

After a surprise phone call in 2001 from an ex WRAN who I joined up with, I now enjoy a social get together on the last Friday evening of each month with other ex WRANS. I am also a member of the Naval Association (SA) - WRANS Sub Section and am currently the secretary of the Organising Committee for the Ex WRANS - RAN Women Reunion, being hosted in Adelaide in April 2009.

Jordan, Dave

A story by Marty Grogan: Circa: Late 1967 Location: Ships Office, HMAS DUCHESS alongside Garden Island Captains Sec: POWTR Dave "Tubby" JORDAN I was working in the Office one day with ABWTR Colin a.k.a. Knocker, Cylindrical or Circular WHITE R59--- (ex CERBERUS JR, ex NAAH) (RIP as a result of MVA near Hastings in the mid 70's) when we heard a lot of screaming and yelling coming from outside the Ship. Knocker whacked his Bollard out the Scuttle and on seeing a ferry load of kids on a Harbour Excursion who were waving furiously at all the Navy Ships yelled out "All those that want a ----, wave" Now Tubby was the straightest arrow ever and a regular Church goer. When he heard Knockers foul language he promptly ripped him up for toilet paper. Knocker said, "give me a break P.O. they were that far away they would not have been able to hear me, look for yourself". So Tubby whacked his bollard out the Scuttle and of course by this time the ferry was just about alongside us and the first people Tubby saw were a bunch of Nuns who were obviously Guardians for the kids. He went absolutely ballistic and gave Knocker the option of 5 days stoppage from him or front the Captain. Knocker had just come off chooks so decided that Tubby's punishment was the lesser of two evils.

We were getting ready for Admirals inspection so Knocker had to stay back every night to paint and clean the Ships Office. By the 4th day Knocker was getting really p.ssed off and said that he was going to desert. I was a Kellick at the time in the Captains Office and he was in the Pay Office so I told him that if he was going to do a runner that he had to type his own Warrants for Arrest before he left otherwise I would fill him in. So on his 5th night of Tubby's stoppage he spent all night typing the Warrants for Arrest and also a letter to his relief casting dispersions on Tubby's Parentage, Body Mass, you name it, he covered the lot. He placed all of these in a Pussers envelope and marked it "To my relief" and put it in his top drawer. The next night he thundered ashore to the Rockers did a job on himself and flopped back onboard forgetting that he was supposed to be doing a Runner. Everything returned to normal and Knocker had obviously decided not to Desert after all but of course forgot about the envelope.

A couple of days later Tubby was doing his final check of everything before Admirals and came across the dreaded envelope in Knockers top drawer. "What's this he said" tearing open the envelope while Knocker was slowly sliding under the desk. Talk about WW III. Knocker got trooped this time for wasting Public Property to wit AS??? 11 Punishment Warrants and I Pussers envelope. It was a rocky period in Knockers life and one we often laughed about later.

Jordan, Ursula Marie

WR4264. Joined 15th May 1952 and served at Cerberus until discharge 23rd March 1955 on marriage. Believed to have departed for the UK at this time.

Jorgenson, June

During World War II June Jorgenson (Nee Jordan) joined the Women's Royal Australian Naval Service (WRANS) and was a Leading Writer in the Captain's and Admiral's office. She served at HMAS Penguin, HMAS Moreton, mainly at HMAS Kuttabul and HMAS Rushcutter. Following the war Jorgenson became an active member of the Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women. On 26 January 1997 Jorgenson was awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for service to veterans through the Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women and the Women's Royal Australian Naval Service. On Anzac Day 2003, she was awarded the Commonwealth Centennial Medal.
